SUMMARY

Hands-on visual designer with 15+ years creating static, animated, and video assets for media and entertainment brands, including Netflix, STARZ, and WOW! Internet, as well as major pharmaceutical brands such as AstraZeneca and GSK. Specializes in high-stakes presentation design: executive and pitch decks, data visualization and infographics, and flexible template systems that let wider teams build on-brand decks themselves. Designs social-first static and motion content to platform specs, and uses performance data to guide design decisions. Thrives on fast turnarounds and high-volume workloads while keeping every asset pixel-perfect and on-brand. Uses AI tools (Midjourney, Adobe Firefly, Claude) to speed up production and explore new creative directions. Works closely with copywriters, stakeholders, and cross-functional partners from first idea to final delivery.

SKILLS
