SUMMARY

Creative leader and hands-on designer with 15+ years of experience and 7 years leading teams of designers and developers. Has worked for brands including Netflix, STARZ, AstraZeneca, GSK, and WOW! Internet. Brings together creative direction, UX/UI, and front-end skills to turn complex products and business goals into clear, compelling visual stories. Builds and runs digital design systems (design tokens, component libraries, templates, and brand guidelines) that keep product, marketing, and customer-experience teams consistent. Works closely with marketing, product, and business stakeholders, and presents creative clearly to non-design audiences, from concept workshops to executive presentations. Uses analytics to improve creative performance and engagement. Hands-on in Figma, Adobe Creative Suite, and After Effects, with working knowledge of HTML, CSS, and JavaScript; an early adopter of AI tools in the creative process.
